

About RMA Events - Our Disclaimer

Through our events the RMA brings you leading practitioners that contribute the professional development of our members.

The RMA promotes diversity of opinion as it contributes to a better understanding of risk and risk management.

The opinions and insights presented by our speakers are their individual opinions and may not reflect the opinion of our members nor of the Management Committee. The RMA therefore does not endorse or take any responsibility for the opinions and information presented by our speakers at our Member events.

RMA Australia advises that upon request by an event speaker, it will provide a list of members attending the relevant event.

NOTE - RMA events are open to current 2019/2020 members. The membership year is from 1 April to 31 March. To join, visit our Membership page and complete the online individual membership form or contact our Events & Membership team on 0403 170 79 or via events@rmaaustralia.org.

Your RMA Events Team